Dear Mr. Baynham:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director William J. Casey to speak at your Third Annual Leadership Institute on April 17 and 18.

Mr. Casey has asked me to convey his regrets. It would be inappropriate for him as Director of Central Intelligence to attend a political event of this type.

Sincerely,

George W. Lauder
 Director, Public Affairs

Mr. William Casey
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Casey,

On behalf of the Republican Youth Associates of Orange County, I have the distinct honor and privilege of inviting you to speak at the Third Annual Leadership Institute, to be held at the Anaheim Marriot Hotel on April 17-18, 1984.

The Leadership Institute will include high school and college age students from all of California and from several of the western states. Because of the timeliness of the event and the magnitude of the speakers--including Chairman Pete Wilson, Maureen Reagan, Congressman John McCain, Vice-Chairman Mike Antonovich, and State Drug and Alcohol director Chauncey Veech III--we expect attendance in excess of 500 students. The Institute itself has been designed to focus on the policy formulation of the Republican Party platform for 1984, and will be based on the fundamental precepts of our nation's heritage and history. It will feature top Republican speakers from varied fields of interest, including economics, women's rights, civil rights, and the relationship between morality and politics. The Republican Youth Associates feel that you could provide an enlightening and insightful presentation.

With many students today yearning for motivation and guidance from their leaders, the Leadership Institute, and your participation in it, provides the vehicle to provide their type of motivation. We hope that these students will go on to lead lives of leadership, example, and positive thinking while holding true the values of the Republican Party. The Institute will also open the door for productive thought concerning the blending of America's past into modern society with all its responsibilities and challenges to keep America strong and free.

The schedule for the Institute is flexible, therefore your attendance at any time during the three-day event would be very important. We hope that you benefit of the hundreds of young men and women who plan to attend, but also for the spirit of the Institute--a spirit that emphasizes the accessibility of our nation's leaders and the profound perspective of their decisions. I look forward to a reply and good luck in the future.

Cordially,
Tim Baynham

REPUBLICAN YOUTH ASSOCIATES: THIRD ANNUAL LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The Third Annual Leadership Institute will be the most ambitious and important undertaking on behalf of the Republican Youth Associates of the Republican Party of Orange County to date to involve young people in the political process. By focusing on the policy formation of the Republican Party platform in 1984 and by basing this educational exercise on the fundamental precepts of our nation's heritage and history, it promises to be a memorable political learning experience.

There is a tremendous need in this country to introduce young people properly into the political arena and to stimulate interest early in the American system of government. The Institute provides the vehicle to do this, and it also opens the door to a blending of America's past into modern society with all its responsibilities and challenges to keep America strong and free.

Outstanding speakers of high caliber from universities, industry and business, and the political world will give "keynote" speeches followed by roundtable discussions to generate active participation on the part of the students.

Students interested in government, history, economics, and related areas will be encouraged to attend the Institute, and schools have the opportunity to give class credit for the event. High school (juniors and seniors) and college students will be eligible to attend. To help facilitate the attendance of high school students, an adult will accompany every fourteen students and a certain number will be underwritten, if need be.

A special seminar will be given on the national convention, and a drawing will be held with two winners having all their expenses paid to attend the convention in Dallas, Texas. In addition to this, the first Lincoln Medallion will be awarded, and the first George Washington Leadership Award will be presented. Nominations for this latter award will come from the various high schools. The 1984 Dwight D. Eisenhower Scholarship recipients will also be announced.

The two day event will begin on April 17, 1984 at the Anaheim Marriott Hotel in Anaheim, California. The timing of this event is excellent as many young people come to Disneyland during Easter week, however, it will not interfere with important Easter activities. Invitational brochures will be sent to approximately 800 high schools and numerous colleges. Western state central committees and Republican congressmen and senators will also receive packets to distribute to young people in their respective areas.

The cost per student will be $120.00 which will include three dinners, two luncheons, two breakfasts and hotel room (two nights). Contributions are necessary from the Republican community, companies and corporations to offset printing, mailing, correspondence, and other costs for the event. A maximum budget of $10,000 is estimated based on previous Leadership Institutes with accounting reportable to the central committee.

Republican Party of Orange County

(The last Leadership Institute event came in $600 under the budgeted item with an additional $800 raised for the Republican Youth Associate account.)

Although the Republican Youth Associates program is a subcommittee of the Republican Central Committee, its activities are considered educational in nature, therefore, no campaign reporting is necessary.

The Third Annual Leadership Institute has the potential of being extremely successful with the strong possibility of developing a cadre of young people who can help on the reelection of President Ronald Reagan.
